

Double Your Contributions to the IETF

Did you know?

- Many employers match gifts made by company board members and retired employees.
- Many employers match gift stock.
- If married, both you and your spouse's employers might match your contribution.
- Some employers make cash donations when their employees volunteer for charitable and not-for-profit organizations.

Here's what you do

- Ask Human Resources or Personnel if your employer has a Matching Gift Program
- Next, ask for a Matching Gift Program form
- Finally, fill out the form and mail it with your contribution to:
